Sir,

In submitting herewith a petition received by one Venkatesh Sastri resident of Kolar town praying for the grant of one seer of rice, daily from the Annachatrum at Kolar, I have the honor to state that the petitioner is a blind old Brahman about 80 years old. He has an equally aged wife who is stricken with paralysis. The old Couple used to subsist by begging; but owing to the present outbreak of plague, and the Consequent evacuation of the town, they cannot get any one to feed them at Kolar. It is learnt that they were on the verge of starvation a few days back and were saved in time by some charitably disposed persons considering their extremely pitiable condition and the absence of any friends or relation to take care of them; I think they are fully deserving of the help asked for by them. — I therefore beg to recommend that sanction may be accorded for the daily grant to them of one Seer of rice and Condiments required therefor at the Annachatram at Kolar. —

Sir,

In submitting herewith a petition presented by one Venkamma, a resident of Kolar praying for the daily grant of rice for her livelihood from the Kolar Amachatram, I have the honor to state that I saw the petitioner while she presented her petition to me. She is an old Brahmin widow about 80 years of age. It is learnt that she has neither relations nor friends to take care of her, that she had a son who died of plague about 5 years back and that eversince his death, she was maintaining herself by begging but of late on account of her extreme old age and continued ill-ness, she is unable to go out even for begging and her neighbours, who were occasionally feeding her, have withheld their help on account of these hard days and in consequence she had to undergo sometimes privation.
